

Long Term English Plan LKS2 Cycle B 21-22

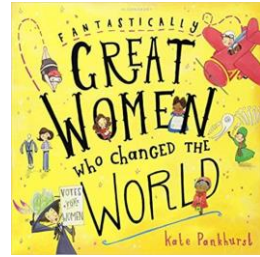

Hello	We are invaders	We are time travellers	We are investigators	We are environmentalists	We are international	Goodbye
Hello Who am I?	Why did the Vikings invade? Vikings	How did women change the world?	How can care more about our homes? Green energy	Stone Age How did we use the land?	Around the World in 80 days.	Individual and whole class transitions
	Vikings	History through time	Electricity	Rocks
Fiction Texts
 Writing all about themselves. Information page.	 Tell Me a Dragon. Poetry  The Clockwork Dragon by Jonathan Emmett & Elys Dolan Story SOA – poem about clockwork dragon.	 Wangari Maathai The Woman who planted a thousand trees. Persuasive letter (Christmas project) Look at the poem Twas the night before Christmas Write own poem modern poem based around the structure.	 Tin Forest by Helen Ward & Wayne Anderson Modern fable Narrative	 Stone Age Boy by Satoshi Kitamura Timeslip story Diary Diary about travelling to the Stone Age. SOA - Letter writing about life in Stone Age time.	 The Firework-makers Daughter by Phillip Pullman. Recount about the final display  The Whistling Monster by Jamila Gavin's	 Way home by Libby Hathorn and Gregory Rogers.
Reading outcomes			Recognising different types of text (fable)
Non-Fiction Texts

Usborne Illustrated
Norse Myths
Recount.

Retell one of the adventures from the characters point of view.

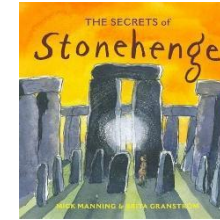

Kenning poems. – Eight swords by Roger Stevens.

Information Page about Wangarri Maathai.

Information page

The secret of Stonehenge by Mick Manning

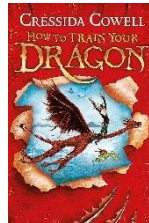

Holiday brochure for Skara brae

Gut Garden
By Katie Brosnan
Explanation

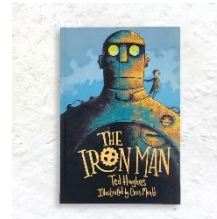

Class novel

Class read?

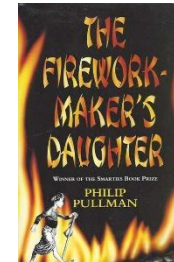

How to train your dragon. By Cressida Cowell
Description

Class read

Ironman by Ted Hughes.
Diary from Hogarth.

Class read

The Firework-makers Daughter by Phillip Pullman.
Recount about the final display

Thai short films
Ripple: to the Good Samaritans and Unsung Hero.