1. Introduction

1.1 Overview

A critical incident may be defined as:

“An event or events, usually sudden, which involve the experience of significant personal distress to a level which potentially overwhelms normal responses, procedures and coping strategies and which is likely to have emotional and organisational consequences.”

Examples of critical incidents that might affect establishments are:

- A major incident in which employees, volunteers and/or pupils are killed or seriously injured (e.g. Aberfan, Dunblane, M40 mini-bus crash, Jupiter school cruise ship).
- An incident on-site at an establishment, involving sudden natural death, serious assault, accident or injury, hostage situation (e.g. a machete attack on nursery children).
- A personal tragedy or major incident in the community that affects staff or pupils through trauma or traumatic bereavement (e.g. Hillsborough, Herald of Free Enterprise, murder in the community).

1.2 Review existing measures

Establishments are required by law to regularly review their arrangements for health and safety. They must also review matters relating to security and personal safety. Regular review of these matters will help to reduce the risk of emergencies developing into disasters.

All employees should be aware of their establishment's existing emergency procedures (e.g. fire, bomb threats, severe weather warnings etc.), and should be familiar with the procedures for emergency evacuation and closure. Regular practice of emergency procedures should be part of the workplace routine.

You will need to develop your establishment's emergency procedures; and adapt the model plan to suit the particular circumstances of your establishment.

Your establishment's plan must be reviewed at least annually. It should be revised whenever necessary. Such as a change in SLT.

2. Communication

Efficient and effective communication systems are central to the effective management of emergencies. You may wish to consider whether you can incorporate any of the following into your establishment's preparation for Emergency Planning:

2.1 Rapid alert systems

- Emergency Fire & Evacuation Procedures prominently displayed; and all staff familiar with them through regular notice.
- Fire Alarm signal to trigger rapid evacuation. Different use of lesson bell, or other agreed signal, for emergencies where evacuation would be inappropriate or dangerous.
- Directory for internal telephone system could include emergency contact telephone number(s).
- Use of internally agreed code words for internal staff alerts.

2.2 Quick access to information and people

- List of up-to-date emergency telephone contact numbers, regularly reviewed and updated; and included in the establishment's Emergency Plan.
- Current emergency telephone contact numbers for families of pupils, staff, and regular volunteers.
- Up-to-date emergency telephone contact numbers, and establishment identification, carried at all times by staff on off-site visits / journeys
- Map or ground-plan of establishment included in the Emergency / Critical Incident Management Plan to help Emergency Services to prioritise and protect key areas (e.g. data storage).
- Agreed telephone tree. (See Appendix 1)

	Thursday, 19/05/2011
7.40pm	Received call from Jane Sutcliffe at the council. Report of a fire at school (although she's unsure which parts of the building are affected). Police and fire service are on-scene. Jane offered to send someone to the school to assist with the response - I gave her my mobile number and she'll let me know who will attend. I'll contact Philip Healy (caretaker) and we'll aim to arrive at school within half an hour.
7.50pm	Rang Philip. Number engaged.
7.55pm	Rang Philip. Told him about the situation and asked him to meet me at the school entrance as soon as possible. He'll be there for 8.15pm.
8.05pm	Received text message from Jane - someone from her team (Andrew Taylor) will meet us at the entrance in about 10 / 15 minutes. Mobile number for Andrew: 07802 388 07802 338 202.
8.20pm	Arrived at school, Philip and Andrew already there. Spoke to fire officer - one classroom ablaze, adjacent ones likely to be severely affected by smoke damage. Unsure of the cause but arson can't be ruled out at the moment. We'll have to close the school tomorrow. Also need to arrange a site visit in the morning (provisional time 8am).
8.40pm	Informed Anna Hughes (deputy headteacher) about the incident. Asked her to notify parents / carers that the school will be closed tomorrow. She'll arrange for other staff and governors to be told and put a notice on the school website. I'll contact the radio stations.
